Halloween Trick or Treat Trail Thank you!

It was a beautiful day in the park on Saturday! Families started lining up at 12:30 for the Trick or Treat Trail opening at 1:00 pm. Several hundred children had passed through before 2:00 pm. By 4 pm we saw over 600 children. What a day!

Thank you to the sponsors who made it possible to provide the bags, candy, and haunted house. Thank you to the people who were responsible for creating the haunted house, and thank you to the vendors for supporting the event. Working together is always a win for the community.

Sponsors: BridgeStreet Real Estate, Dazzle Cleaning Services, Grubaugh Orthodontics, Karen Burns, ReMax Real Estate Professionals DeWitt, Physical Therapy Connection, Reed Insurance, Small business Association of Michigan, Vitek Family Dentistry.

Vendors: DeWitt Area Chamber of Commerce, DeWitt Memorial Association, BridgeStreet Real Estate, Astera Credit Union, Vitek Family Dentistry, Grubaugh Orthodontics, DeWitt Christian Church, Looking Glass Child Development Center, The Plant Professionals, Edward Jones, ReMax Real Estate Professionals, Twisted Craft Cocktails, Consolidated Electrical Contractors, Conquest Fitness, Physical Therapy Connection, Lake Trust Credit Union, LaFontaine Buick GMC of Lansing.

A very special Thank You to the volunteers who created the Haunted House: Jeremy Sinke, Nickie Atwell, Karen Burns, Beth Landgraf, Anna Neher, Kathy Valentine, Justin Blake, and Gail Maurer.

As you can see by this picture, Jeremy has a new friend.

The DeWitt Chamber will be hosting our annual Festival of Trees and Christmas Charity Auction along with the Electric Light Parade, December 3. Entry forms are attached.

Trees and Gift Baskets must be delivered to the Chamber Office by Tuesday, November 29. Please no exceptions! A lot of time is involved in preparing the auction and last minute entries really create issues for planning and setup.
